

Lindsay Kindrachuk, CA

Tax Advisor

lkindrachuk@moodystax.com

“Tax allows me to make a meaningful difference for clients. It is a service of great value, in an area few are well-versed.”

Lindsay has worked in the tax compliance trenches – dotting the i’s and crossing the t’s – which makes her technical skills exceptionally strong. But for a person who loves to be with clients, enjoys seeing people at ease, and wants to make a difference in the lives she touches, tax planning was a natural fit for Lindsay; a very fortunate turn of events for Moodys clients because she brings her goodwill orientation and broad technical knowledge to create value for clients.

Areas of expertise

- Corporate tax
- Corporate reorganizations
- Estate planning
- Personal tax planning
- Tax dispute resolution
- GST / HST

Qualifications:

- CPA Canada In-Depth GST/HST Course, 2019
- CICA, In-Depth Tax Course I and II, 2010 - 2011
- Institute of Chartered Accountants of Alberta, CA, 2009
- Athabasca University, Certificate of Accounting, 2006
- University of Calgary, BA Economics, 2003

Professional affiliations:

- Member – Canadian Tax Foundation
- Member – Institute of Chartered Accountants of Alberta

Speaking engagements and presentations:

- Co-presenter – “Taking Away the Advantage (Extension of the TFSA prohibited investment and advantage rules to RRSPs)”, 2013 TSG Conference, January 27, 2013

In the News:

- Lindsay Kindrachuk discusses credits and deductions for Canadian tax return filings, April 1, 2015, Global News